

STUDENT'S CASE STUDY BRIEF

Case Study Title

Ahmed - Between Promotion and Submission

1. Case Scenario (Given)

Ahmed is a working professional.
He believes Allah is his Rabb and considers himself morally conscious.

Ahmed is offered a promotion that includes:

- A significant increase in salary
- Higher social status
- Long-term career growth

However, the new role also requires:

- Compromising ethical values
- Participating in misleading practices
- Neglecting prayers due to workload
- Reduced time for family and self-development

Ahmed feels internally disturbed but says:

- "This is unavoidable."
- "I have responsibilities."
- "Once I am stable, I will fix things."

Although he believes Allah is the Sustainer, his sense of security depends mainly on the job and system.

2. Your Task (Field-Based)

You are required to:

- Identify a real person in society who closely matches Ahmed's situation
- Meet him and listen carefully
- Observe his emotional and moral journey

This is not an interview or debate.

You are a listener and observer.

2.1 What to Observe and Record

- How and when pressure entered his life
- What fears dominate his decisions
- What compromises were gradual
- How his worship, peace, and priorities changed
- How he views Allah's role in his current situation

2.2 Analysis Requirement

After observation, analyze the case by focusing on:

- Who practically controls his decisions today
- How fear replaced trust
- How human systems became authorities
- Where understanding of Rabb weakened

2.3 Corrective Insight

Based on your analysis, suggest:

- Practical corrective steps
- Gradual realignment with Ruboobiyyat
- Mindset changes that are realistic

Do not preach or judge.

2.4 Ethical Guidelines

- Keep identity anonymous
- No recording without consent
- No advice-giving
- Respect emotional boundaries

3. Final Submission Should Include

1. Anonymous profile of the person

2. Description of the situation
 3. Emotional & decision-making journey
 4. Analytical insights
 5. Corrective actions & learning

4. Final Note for Students

This case study is not about Ahmed.

It is about how belief survives or collapses under pressure.
